

SONJA GIL.

ARCHITECT

ABOUT ME.

I am a Venezuelan Architect based in Barquisimeto. I hold an undergraduate degree in architecture and urbanism from UCV, one of the best universities in Latin America. My mind is a balanced blend of creative and analytical qualities, great at multitasking and working under pressure. Have proven capacity to analyze, develop and design in various areas of architecture and management skills as well. I am seeking opportunities to explore my interests in social responsibility, sustainable design and urban development. I am very independent and self-motivated, and I am seeking out full-time employment in a vibrant workplace
